

Meet the people behind the technology.

Brandi Narez

Sr. Marketing Communications Specialist

Mrs. Narez is responsible for executing the Company's global marketing communications strategies, including advertising, trade shows, press releases, product literature, and branding for the Fine Chemicals and Polymer Solutions business divisions.

Mrs. Narez joined Albemarle in early 2009 in the Corporate Communications group and was responsible for marketing communications for the Fine Chemicals and Polymer Solutions business divisions. She also managed the Albemarle Corporation website as well as internal communications through the company intranet and managed several internal corporate communications projects.

Prior to joining Albemarle, Mrs. Narez worked for a level instrumentation manufacturer, K-TEK Corporation, as Marketing Communications Manager from 2001-2008, where she was responsible for marketing communications globally for the company. She earned a B.A. Public Relations degree from Louisiana State University.